Daily The Noble Fight of the Banner County---All Independents and Radicals Defeated. pecial Correspondence to the News.

NEWTON, N. C., Aug. 3, 1878. Catawba county comes to the front, and stands gallantly by the ticket. When men walk quietly up to the crisis and unflinchingly discharge their duty plained that Barrett cut him down with they deserve commendation under any Bertha. The Judges investigated the circumstances, but when against oppomatter and gave the race to Bertha; sition and inclination and desire they Bijou second. Time, 1:483. The do their whole duty fearlessly, their acfourth race, mile and a quarter, all tion deserves still greater praise. Catawba, the banner county, still lays claim to the flattering reputation accorded in the past. There were four candidates for the House of Represens tatives: Mr. R. B. Davis the nominee of the Convention, Mr. Foard and Mr. Murrill, Independent Democrats, and Mr. Barringer, Independent Radical. There was great dissatisfaction all over the county. Many charged fraud in the Convention, many thought trading had been resorted to, many, from sectional motives, disliked Mr. Davis. These opinions led Messrs. Murrill and Foard to suppose there was an opening for an opponent to the nominee, hence they ran.

The campaign waxed warm. Many seemed disaffected, and each Independent had, or seemingly had, many supporters. This state of affairs led the Republicans to bring out a man whom they thought they could elect, since nobody seemed enthusiastic over either of the three candidates then in the field. Mr. Barringer, therefore, declared himself, and instituted a vigorous campaign, and seemed to be gaining ground. Thus stood the Legislative outlook. The county ticket was "butted" against. The old Sheriff, Jonas Cline, ran against the nominee. The old Register of Deeds ran against the nominee, and asked a re-election to his office. There was also an Independent candidate for Treasurer. Sheriff Cline had many warm friends who voted and worked for him. Mr. Brown, the outsiders crowded in upon the dele-Register, had made a good officer and (gates, and kept up such a constant upmany voted for him, and all seemed to point to a dissolution of the party as far as this county was concerned. Yesterday the honest, upright, staunch Democrats of this grand old county went to the ballot-box and ticket after ticket was deposited for the regular Democratic nominees. The whole ticket was elected. Capt. R. B. Davis received a very handsome majority, and Independents are left behind. The county ticket was elected entire and without a break. Hurrah for Catawba county. Hurrah for the good people of the good county. They have done nobly. They have stood the test and are still Democrats. Capt. Davis' majority over Independents and Republicans combined is 506. Capt. Davis' elections gives Vance one vote. Catawba can tolerate nothing that opposes Vance.

CABARRUS COUNTY.

Combinations Which Caused Defeat--Effects of the Means Odell Contest.

Correspondence of the News. Concord, N, C. August 3.
The result of the election in Cabarrus will doubtless astonish the Democracy of North Carolina. We have heretofore boasted that no Republican, Independent nor any man could be elected in Cabarrus in opposition to a straight Democratic ticket, but this one time we have failed, and our friends reason ably enquire why, and we feel that it is due the Democratic party of our State to know the combination that defeated the regular ticket.

WHY WE WERE DEFEATED. The contest between Col. Means and Mr. Odell for the nomination was very animated and pressed by each of the contestants and his friends with all their energy and force, and when it was ascertained that in the primary township meetings held on June 15th Odell had carried 8 of our 12 townships, Means and his friends claimed some irregularities in the manner in which these said primary meetings were conducted. All agree that they were properly called and duly advertised. The discussion of these differences "stirred up" much feeling before the 29th of June, the day appointed for our county convention, and when the delegation regularly appointed assembled on the 29th, to hold said convention, outsiders crowded in upon the deleroar and confusion, that it was impossible to transact any business whatever, and no formal nominations were made. Late in the evening, however, the chairmen of the ten regularly appointed delegations held a meeting in the court house, and eight of these declared that in their meetings on the 15th of June they were instructed to cast their votes for Odell; that they had come for that purpose; had sought an opportunity all day to do so, and wished before leaving town to record their votes as instructed. This they did. Some of Means' friends insisted that this was no nomination and declared they would not support the ticket. Means, some two weeks subsequent to this, withdrew in favor of Odell, but notwithstanding, many of his most intimate friends and zealous supporters were active canvassers and enthusiastic opponents to Mr. Odell throughout the contest and it is thought that some 200 Means men voted against Odell. It is certain that some voted againt Odell. COMBINATIONS.

Secondly, the Nationals had gained considerable hold here and lastly the Republicans voted solidly, almost, against Odell, as they always combine with any party or parties to defeat a ent. Redwine carried this County by our nominee for the Senate, when it was our turn to furnish the candidate.

The State ticket was carried, having no opposition, by about 1225. We have not yet received the official vote from two townships; will send it to you tomorrow, as the canvassers declare the result at 12 m. We will be able then to give exact and correct figures.

A Fearful Cyclone in Pitt. Correspondence of the News

GREENVILLE, Aug. 3. Pitt county was, yesterday, visited by a terrible Cyclone from the north-west. Its first appearance was a red cloud in the north-west, accompanied by a terrible roaring and clouds of dust so thick you could scarcely see a cable's length. The track of the storm was down Grindle Creek. The edge of it passed south of the Tar, and only damaged trees and fences and the growing crops. But on the north side of the river, it blew down houses, smashed buggies, and I have heard that one colored man was killed. One gentleman counted 300 trees in his cotton and scrupulous minions of the thieving corn, and 72 across his fences. A tree capitalists and blood-suckers in general. They have distorted my speeches and I have never had a fair show. I The blades of fodder torn into shreds, the corn on the ground in the rain, cattle in the fields through the broken fences and cotton torn and twisted, are only part of the damage done.

Result of the Election -Crop Prospects-- Death of au old

Correspondence of the Fews. GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 3. The election passed off very quietly, with a good deal of scratching of tickets, there being no regular nominee by the Republicans. Of my own knowledge, a good many colored men voted the straightout Democratic ticket. We elected all our old Democratic county officers, two new men (Democrats and farmers) Dr. J. A. McLean and C. I. Wheeler, to the Legislature, with Col. J. I. Scales re-elected to the Senate and D. F. Caldwell, Independent Democrat, elected over Col. Holt and D. A. Montgomery of Alamance. Congressional Convention.

A Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876. By order of District Ex. Committee, H. A. LONDON, Jr. Chairman. The Democratic papers in the District wil please copy.

Tim Lee stontly asseverated, in a speech made at the Democratic serenade on Saturday night, that the election of Snow to the Senate could not be regarded as a Democratic victory. We are reminded of the "spelling bee" they had in Massachusetts, where the word propounded was "cough." "K-o-ff," said the spellist. On being told that he was wrong, the reply was at once emphatic and clinching: "Ef k-o-ff don't spell cough, what in the h-ll do it spell?" Tim can take the application.

Experience in Union county is not encouraging to the advocates of the system of primary elections, in lieu of conventions, as the proper plan of party organization. In the primary in that county, where every man claiming to be a Democrat or expressing a desire to vote with that party in the regular election was allowed to register the expression of his preference, Mr. J. P. Horn received the highest vote of all competitors, and was accepted by the true Democrats of the county as the party's regular candidate for Sheriff. And yet, on Thursday last, by the adin the State! The man who votes in as the man who goes into convention or cancus is obligated to abide its action. Abuses will creep into either system and there is but one cure. When men form their political opinions intelligently and adhere to them conscientiously,-when they come to hold principle as something above personal partiality or prejudice,-when they come principle, - then we shall have the remedy, and not until then. Meanwhile the outlook is rather bad for Primaries, though we are for them, or anything else, that can possibly compact and consolidate our organization. They have been tried elsewhere with good results. and possibly the case in Union county is exceptional.

Eureka!

We have found what Diogenes, the cynic Philosopher of Greece, so long sought in vain, 'an honest man!" Not that " brave men did not live before Agamemnon," or that honest men, as the world and the age count honesty, do not abundantly exist now. If it were not too far from our purpose, we might go off at a tangent, by t e-way, and descant upon the manner in which that good old word "honesty" is perverted now-a-days. We want but one illustration to point that moral. corruptionists and perfection of of the skirmish line preluding a far political prostitutes and bummers, came to be called "Honest John," verily, as the Post saith:

"The word had almost lost its use," and no wonder that Ben Butler, encour aged by the example, faintly sighed and stroye for a similar prefix. We might, if we chose, enter a wider field of inquiry, and mark the broad modern distiction which obtains between the words "honest and "honorable"-how, in a word, a man in the parlance of the times, may be "Hon" or "Right Hon" without having a grain of honesty in his composition, and how, indeed, as a tolerably general rule, the man who really is honest, and wishes to keep so, studiously avoids the acquisition of those instance, is not only "Honorable." but writes "His Excellency" in addition thereto, at the very time when he is in that "honestly" belongs to another.

But all this is "aside." What we wish to do is to hold up, for the general emulation of all delinquent subscribers to the News, the example of the writer and Justice in North Carolina are writer lives in a far distant State. The gentleman, (a resident of this city,) to whom the communication is addressed. ceased his connection with the paper referred to over twenty years ago. With this explanation we append the remarkable letter: "July 15, 1878. DEAR SIR: - If you are the party, that published the ------ many and read a few numbers, and went far- this presentation, they are ample to ther West, but I presume your paper satisfy our wishes and challenge our came the full year out, and I want to most sanguine expectations of good for pay you. If, after the exacerbations of the late campaign, and in the midst of this su'try and oppressive weather, our readers are not refreshed by so striking and splendid exhibition of old-fashioned honesty, we shall be disappointed. We are glad to hold such a mirror up to nature, that he who looks may read and reflect. Go not away, either, "forgetting what manner of man you are," but, rather, "go thou and do likewise."

The Election -- Its Results and its Lessons.

Now that the smoke of the recent battle is clearing away, we are beginning to be able to survey the field with some degree of calmness and deliberation, to realize the true results and draw the exact and proper deductions. To say that the State of North Carolina still clings to its Democratic moorings, and that the victory which we have accomplished is sufficiently decided to leave no possible doubt on that point, is a fact, for which we have reason for profound congratulation. To say that that triumph is all that we had reason to expect or desire would be to state what we do not feel and cannot express. While the footing-up is satisfactory enough in itself, the details present food for grave reflection and afford room for many suggestions, which, if rightly heeded and improved, will enable us to steer clear of the perils which have surrounded and threatened us. In the spirit of friendly counsel, and with a lively appreciation of the danger we have escaped, as well as of the actual damage we have incurred,above all, with the most vivid comprehension of the perils that lie before us, and of the exigencies of the hour and of the situation, -we propose, from day to day, until we shall have exhausted the subject, to discuss our status, our mistakes and our high duties.

And, first, what have we achieved, as the result of the recent contest? Our majority in the Legislature, though not so large as in the last General Assembly, will reach 25 or 30 over both Radicals and Independents, and is, therefore, sufficiently great for all practical purposes. Indeed, in one point of view, it is a more desirable ascendancy verse votes of his own party. Mr. Horn than a larger preponderance. Heavy was defeated, in a county usually as majorities, in legislative bodies, unless s aunch and true to Democracy as any particular objects requiring them are to be accomplished, are apt to be una primary election is as much weildy and unmanageable. Men, usubound by the decision of the majority ally, in such assemblies, cannot be kept up to the rigid standard of discipline, when they do not feel the necessity of compact organization. John Randolph, probably was not far from the mark when he asserted that a majority of two was the best possible working majority. We have spoken of our clear and decided majority over Independents and the enemy combined. Nearly all of the to regard party as the representative of former, however, we have every confidence, as much as we deprecate and deplore the spirit which prompted their course and the means which were employed to secure their election, will be found in full accord with party organization, when the Legislature meets, and may be relied on in every matter affecting party integrity and interests. We both hope and believe that such will be the case. So far as we are concerned, we propose to forget the insubordination which we have felt it our duty to animadvert upon with severity, while it was arrayed against the exactions of party union, and to invoke all who really adhere to the principles and name of the Democratic party to forget, also, the things which are behind, and to reach, with us, after the consummations for which, for so many years, we have jointly struggled. Higher obligations claim our allegiance than ever before,-sterner duties than any we have been called upon to perform are before us. The struggle through which When John Sherman, the prince of we have passed is but the rattling fire

No people were ever better prepared to appreciate such a reform. The failure of the Radicals to place a ticket in the field, in opposition to the admirable gentlemen and jurists who were nominated for the Supreme Court bench by the Democratic party, while it was a stroke of strategy in a certain direction, (of which we shall speak endangering appellations. Hayes, for bereafter, and which conveys a warning which we may use profitably), was, in itself, tantamount to an admission of the manner in which the judicial powthe fraudulent possession of an office ers of the State have been, with some rare exceptions, perverted and prostituted. We congratulate the people that the era of a political judiciary is at an end, and that the high places of Law of the letter which we subjoin, and henceforth to be unpolluted and unconwhich we are permitted to publish. The changes in our systems of county government, which go into operation to-day, as one of the fruits of our amended Constitution, and the election of a reliable and competent officiary in a large majority of the counties of the State, are events, also, calculated to excite our profoundest gratification.

and efforts in the past. But, as we have already remarked, more important issues and responsibilities are ahead than those which have commanded our allegiance and exertions in the past. They are issues which not only involve the security of much that we have already won, but of all that it is of greater importance we should win. How far our ability to cope with these issues and to come up to the measure of these responsibilities has been affected by the recent campaign and its result, is the paramount question which now presents itself for our earnest consider-

Of this we shall have much to say. It is sufficient, to-day, to warn our friends that many breaches have been made, which need to be repaired,-that grave defects in our organization appear, which require prompt remedy. This done, -with batter es planted anew and the standard of our party re-erected over unfaltering lines,—we can go into the struggle now before us with a certainty of success which will be commensurate with the firmness our resolve.

On to Richmond.

Quite a number of the business men of the city will leave on the excursion to Richmond of which frequent mention has been made. The tickets on this trip are complimentary, given by the Richmond merchants, and the visitors will be received with Virginia bospitality.

And Yet Another.

Excursions are now the order of the day, and another is announced for the 14th inst. from Charlotte and Henry, Salisbury, Salem, Greensboro, and all intermediate points. The fare is low and the time made is quick. A more extended notice will, in a day or two, be Spilled.

As Pomp Bryan was driving his diminutive steed in his vehicle to match, the little quadruped shied, at a corner, and threw his driver about twenty feet in the air. As he struck ground the cart turned over, ditto the pony, and the three lay piled in the street, to the amusement of the bystanders.

His First Sermon.

On Sunday evening the pulpit of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church was filled by Mr. Charles S. Farris, a theological student at Wake Forest College. The sermon was the first ever delivered by this young man, who is a native of this city. It was heard by an exceedingly large audience, and is spoken of as being a fine effort.

Disorderly.

The portion of the city known as the old Fair Ground, is acquiring a bad reputation, on account of the disorder and fighting which mark the recurrence of each Sunday. On last Sabbath the hoodlums of that locality held high carnival, and engaged in any number of fights and rows. That part of the city needs looking after.

Military Gossip.

The Sumter Light Infantry, of South Carolina, have elected General M. P. Taylor and Messrs. F. W. Kerchner and F. H. Mitchell, of Wilmington, honorary members of their company, and have also passed complimentary resolutions, expressive of their kind regards and high appreciation of the courtesies and hospitality extended to them by the Wilmington Military and Major Graves, the Commandant of the Post at Smithville, during their recent visit and short sojourn by the seaside, in this state.

The Methodist Excursion.

The grand excursion for the benefit of the new church building of the Edenton Street Methodist Church, passes the city for Beaufort this morning. The excursion starts from Greensboro. A large number of most comfortable cars have been provided, and the management of the affair is in the hands of courteous and efficient gentlemen, there, here, and at other points. The price of round trip tickets from this point has been placed at $3.00, while accommodations have been secured at Beaufort at greatly reduced prices. The time for which tickets are good may easily be extended to ten days. The excellent object for which this excursion is gotten up commends itself particularly to our people, and it is hoped that Raleigh will contribute largely to the number of these pleasure three months. The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, that no officer or employee shall buy or contract any debt, for or against the city, for a larger amount than five dollars, unless approved by a majority of the committee whose duty it is to superintend such departments; and that the finance committee shall not approve any account unless such proof is produced.

The following resolution was also adopted: Resolved, that from the expenses of the last two months, and if the same be continued, that the city will be indebted some $8,000. That all committees be requested to cut down the expenses so as to make them come under the revenue of the city.

Many remarks were made with reference to the condition of the streets. Application was made for three fire cisterns in the First Ward, now destitute of these necessaries. The cisterns applied for to be located at points chosen by the Street Commissioner, and to contain not less than 20,000 gallons. The matter was referred to the Street

Committee. A statement was made in reference to grading Sanders and extending Jones Streets. The matter was referred to Bros. the Street Committee, with orders to report cost, etc.

Samuel C. White, Esq., was appoint ed Chairman of the Street Committee. After sundry suggestions as to the bettering of the streets and some advice on the light question, the Board adjourned, Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles, to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

The withdrawalby Weddiu & Bailey of their coaches and teams from the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Henry, will result in no inconvenience to the traveling public, as an entirely new outfit of coaches, carriages and hacks, with splendid horses, was placed on the line between Henry and Asheville, by Brown and Verble, before the bove mentioned withdrawal of Wed-have been selling tickets to Asheville and Warm Springs with coupons attached for stage line from head of Western North Carolina Railroad, will continue to do so, as such coupons will be recognized and received for fare over

This celebrated blood purifying remedy has long been recognized by the physicians in the North and East for its very remarkable curative properties, and is universally used in their private practice. Vegetine contains no minerals, but is a purely vegetable remedy, and strengthens and invigorates the who have either tried it themselves or seen its effects upon others. Scrofula of twenty-five years standing, and pronounced by scientific physicians hope-lessly incurable, has disappeared after Vegetine has been used but a short few bottles. Dr. H. R. Stevens, of Boston, Mass., the proprietor of this wonderful medicine, has thousands and thousands of letters, all testifying to its virtues, and from parties who can be communicated with, should any one so desire. AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAU-TIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real blauty—a pure and clear complexion What nature has thus denied, art must be what nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when Le oiscovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner. It removes all roughness eruptions, reduces blotches, freckles, and tan with maglical power. al power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and xcitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful. It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawb.ck to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using Hagan's Magnolla Balm, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things cousidered, and may be had at any drug stors.
